MOTION FOR IMMEDIATE HEARING AND TEMPORARY ORDERS

Complainant, by counsel, moves the Commission for the scheduling of an immediate hearing to determine whether it will issue a temporary order allowing Henderson Union Rural Electric Cooperative to immediately supply electrical service to the Complainant at its new mine site located in Union County Kentucky. For facts supporting this motion, see the formal complaint filed herewith, which is hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set out.

Complainant is caught in the middle of a power struggle between two utility giants who have informed the Complainant that problems such as it is presently experiencing had been informally resolved in the past. Under such circumstances, the Complainant will suffer immediate and irreparable harm, injury or damage if the temporary relief requested is not granted. Temporary orders should issue to avoid such damage, harm or injury while the Commission considers the merits of the Complaint filed herein. An order allowing RECC to provide temporary electrical service can be of no harm to any Party hereto, as KU cannot presently supply such service, and the installation of RECC's service is solely at the expense of the Complainant.
